TURN TO CIA LIBRARY

1. Three aircraft observed from a great distance were parked on the landing field of the ALT LOENNEWITZ (N 52/E 84) airfield. Two radio stations, 1,600 feet apart, were set up in the open, directly northeast of the field. One radio station had two closed trucks, a cabin, a tent and a mast with a complicated antenna system. The other had two closed trucks and a mast with a less complicated antenna system. The field was heavily guarded by the Soviet Air Force.

2. Three horse-drawn vehicles, driven by Soviet soldiers wearing red-bordered, black epaulets, each with a trailer as shown on the attached sketch.

Comment:

25X1A

a. The present occupation of the field has not been determined.
in FALK

Few aircraft have been observed recently so that one fighter regiment at most is probably stationed at the field.

b. The presence of radio stations or a radar set was confirmed by other sources.

c. The trailer mentioned in para 2 and reproduced on the attached sketch is obviously a trailer for the transportation of a crank mast.
